

OKLAHOMA
INSURANCE
DEPARTMENT

ANNUAL REPORT 2017

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER JOHN D. DOAK

The Honorable Mary Fallin, Governor of Oklahoma
The Honorable Mike Schulz, President Pro Tempore of the Senate
The Honorable Charles McCall, Speaker of the House
The Honorable Gary Jones, State Auditor and Inspector

I am pleased to present to you the Oklahoma Insurance Department's 2017 Annual Report. It summarizes the required financial disclosures and listing of companies operating in Oklahoma. It also highlights our efforts to assist consumers and protect the vitality of the insurance marketplace.

Our mission is "to protect and enhance the financial security of Oklahoma and Oklahomans." We achieve our goal by enforcing the state's insurance-related laws and regulations, helping consumers with insurance issues and using innovation to improve services for insurance producers and consumers.

We are also pleased to report that we continue to run our agency very efficiently. We've been under budget every year I've been in office, allowing $40.5 million to be transferred from our revolving fund for use by other state agencies. We also undergo annual financial audits.

It is a privilege and an honor to serve the great state of Oklahoma. My staff and I are happy to answer any questions.

Respectfully,

John D. Doak
Oklahoma Insurance Commissioner

The Oklahoma Insurance Department is accredited by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) until 2020.

To achieve this accreditation, the Department must meet stringent national standards that demonstrate financial solvency regulation of insurance companies.

The accreditation principles set by the NAIC allow the Department to better protect consumers and set and maintain the highest standards in financial regulation for Oklahoma's insurance industry.

Commissioner Doak and the staff of the Oklahoma Insurance Department view accreditation by the NAIC as an important part of our commitment to the citizens of Oklahoma.

Dear Citizens of Oklahoma,

As Insurance Commissioner, my goal is to help Oklahomans in any way possible. Whether it's investigating a wrongly-denied insurance claim, cracking down on fraud after disasters or making sure an insurer is financially solvent, the Oklahoma Insurance Department strives to protect consumers. This year's annual report details those efforts and more. Some highlights of the last year include:

- Passing legislation that requires insurers to give a discount to any homeowner who builds or retrofits their home to IBHS FORTIFIED home construction standards
- Responding to Elk City, Tulsa and even Houston to assist consumers after natural disasters
- Participating in federal hearings about insurance fraud and healthcare
- Recovering more than $3.2 million for Oklahoma consumers
- Hosting the state's first-ever Healthcare Innovation Summit

The employees of the Oklahoma Insurance Department are passionate about what they do. They are committed to enforcing state laws and regulations, monitoring the financial health of insurance companies and being a valuable resource to all Oklahomans.

It has always been my goal to establish common sense policies that balance the interests of consumers and the insurance industry. By encouraging a competitive environment for insurers, we open the door to more quality products. We also aim to increase efficiencies that ease the burden on insurers and lower costs for everyone. If we do all these things we can accomplish our mission of protecting Oklahomans.

I appreciate the opportunity to serve as your Commissioner. If we can ever be of any help to you, please don't hesitate to contact my office at 1-800-522-0071.

Best,

ABOUT COMMISSIONER JOHN D. DOAK

When he took office in January 2011, John Doak's goal was simple: Do everything possible to improve the lives of Oklahomans. He's done that with groundbreaking initiatives, fiscal conservatism and an unwavering commitment to public service.

Under Commissioner Doak's leadership, the Oklahoma Insurance Department (OID) has transformed itself into a proactive and mobile organization. His team fans out across the state to educate citizens before disaster strikes and offers assistance after it does. OID employees have responded to tornadoes, earthquakes, wildfires and ice storms to help victims quickly recover from catastrophe.

Commissioner Doak's visionary efforts include hosting the National Tornado Summit, an annual disaster preparedness conference for insurance professionals, emergency managers and meteorologists. With more than 5,000 attendees over six years, it is the nation's premier event for catastrophe response. His focus on disaster resiliency also earned him a trip to the White House to share best practices with experts from around the country.

Other accomplishments by Commissioner Doak include holding the state's first-ever rate hearing on earthquake insurance premiums, returning $40.5 million in unspent funds to the state treasury, attracting almost 100 captive insurance companies to Oklahoma and hosting a Healthcare Innovation Summit that offered cutting-edge solutions to the country's healthcare challenges. He has also testified before the U.S. Senate about insurance fraud and health care reform.

Commissioner Doak is an active member of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners where he serves as chair of the Property and Casualty Insurance Committee, chair of the Antifraud Task Force, vice chair of the Surplus Lines Task Force and vice chair of the Midwest Zone. He is also a member of the Innovation and Technology Task Force, a new effort to monitor technology, data collection and cybersecurity developments in the insurance industry. Commissioner Doak shapes important national insurance policy issues as a member of the Government Relations Leadership Council and international insurance issues as a member of the International Insurance Relations Leadership Group. Additionally, Commissioner Doak represents the NAIC with the international Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development.

After a tornado hit Elk City, Commissioner Doak toured the damage.

Commissioner Doak with a fellow member of the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development before a roundtable discussion in Paris.

A U.S. Senate subcommittee invited Commissioner Doak to testify about efforts to fight insurance fraud.

Experts explained how cutting-edge products can improve the healthcare system at the OID's first-ever Healthcare Innovation Summit.

TOP ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1. Fortified Home Bill

The passage of House Bill 1720 means Oklahomans could save money and have better protection from tornadoes. The new law requires property insurers to provide a premium discount to any homeowner who builds or retrofits their home to meet the Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety (IBHS) FORTIFIED Home High Wind & Hail standards.

2. National Tornado Summit

The 2017 National Tornado Summit brought together experts in disaster response, emergency management, insurance and meteorology. The 6th annual event also included the first-ever Disaster Symposium. The preconference event focused on response to earthquakes, wildfires and terrorist attacks. The Summit itself included five breakout tracks and a tour of the Oklahoma City National Memorial with insight from Oklahoma Emergency Management Director Albert Ashwood and bombing survivor Terri Talley.

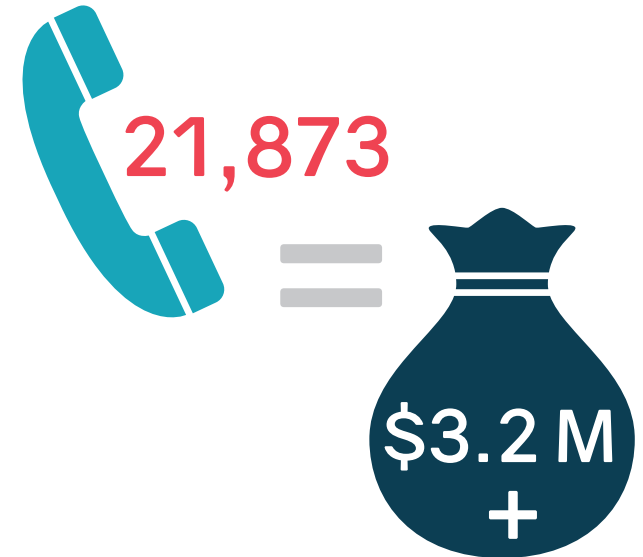

3. Healthcare Innovation Summit

Commissioner Doak hosted the first-ever Healthcare Innovation Summit in 2017. Attendees learned how mobile apps, wearable heart monitors and even high-tech shoe soles could help solve some of America's healthcare problems.

5. Consumer Assistance

The Consumer Assistance Division received 21,873 phone calls and recovered more than $3.2 million for consumers.

5. Medicare Open Enrollment

Every year during open enrollment, the Medicare Assistance Program helps thousands of Oklahomans choose the plans that fit them best. With the help of MAP counselors, consumers have saved an average of $1,900 a year on their Part D prescription drug plan. For seniors of a fixed budget, the savings can make a huge difference in their everyday lives.

CONSUMER ASSISTANCE

The Consumer Assistance/Claims Division plays a vital role in carrying out the Oklahoma Insurance Department's mission to protect and enhance the financial security of Oklahoma and Oklahomans. The Division is responsible for investigating and responding to all complaints and inquiries from the public as well as answering general insurance questions and educating Oklahomans through a variety of outreach efforts. The Consumer Assistance Division also provides critical assistance to policyholders after disasters strike.

Success Stories

- A homeowner's earthquake insurance claim was denied and deemed a settlement based partly on an engineering report. But the homeowner didn't agree and requested help from the OID. After receiving the OID's inquiry, the homeowner's insurance company reopened her claim. They took into account the widespread nature of earthquake damage in her area and the property's close proximity to the epicenter. The insurance company, while not waiving the findings of their first investigation, made the determination to pay the homeowner for the damages. She received more than $70,000. The insurance company even waived the $5,000 policy deductible and the policy requirement to withhold depreciation on the loss.
- The OID was contacted by a cancer patient whose health insurance provider was denying payments for radiological services. The issue had been dragging on for more than a year. With the OID's involvement, the insurance company overturned their decision and paid the claim. The OID was able to recover more than $20,000.
- An insurance company denied two claims for a young boy's hospital visits, one when he was found unconscious and another when he suffered a seizure a few days later. The insurer denied the claims because the hospital was out-of-network. Once the OID got involved, the insurance company approved payment for both stays and worked out an agreement with the hospital so that the insured would not be responsible for the additional out-of-network charges. The OID was able to recover over $20,000. The rest was written off by the provider.
- A consumer's house was destroyed in a fire. Investigators did not suspect arson but the insurance company pressed on with an arson investigation for three months. After the homeowner asked for help from the OID, a Consumer Assistance analyst wrote the company and requested a response. Within weeks, the insurance company paid the total dwelling amount of the policy which was more than $100,000.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Oklahoma Insurance Department's community outreach efforts allow the department to educate citizens and communities about insurance-related issues.

Oklahoma teenagers are getting a crash course in auto insurance with a new financial literacy course taught by Education Field Representative Tracy Keeley. The Insurance 101 for Teen Drivers teaching module is designed for middle and high school students, and it shows how make bad decisions behind the wheel can hurt them financially as well as physically. The 55-minute program includes three segments: a lecture to define basic insurance terms; a demonstration of how to request a quote; and an interactive, decision-making game.

Presentation materials include:

- Basic insurance terms
- How driving record affects insurance rates
- Why distracted driving hurts more than the driver
- Interactive decision-making game "It's Your Choice"

The module also includes an animated PowerPoint®, a worksheet to accompany the "It's Your Choice" game, and a 10-question, combined multiple-choice and fill-in-the-blank "Name that Coverage" quiz that challenges students to validate what they have learned.

The course is full of excellent material for drivers' education and Family and Consumer Science classrooms, but it could be used in any classroom setting. The lesson plans and all the hands-on tools are free for educators to use. The materials are available for download at www.oid.ok.gov. School officials interested in having an OID expert teach the course can contact Tracy Keeley at 405-420-5398.

ISO DIVISION

The Insurance Services Office (ISO) Division at the OID evaluates, educates and helps fire departments improve their ISO rating. A better rating can save residents money on homeowners insurance.

How are ISO Ratings determined?

The ISO Program provides a nationwide standard for the rating system that ranges from 1 to 10. A Class 1 rating indicates superior protection, while a Class 10 indicates that the area's protection doesn't meet the minimum criteria. A community's rating depends on an evaluation of:

- Water supply system; the condition and maintenance of hydrants and the amount of water available
- Fire alarm and communication systems like telephone lines and dispatching systems
- Fire department staff, equipment and training

Success Stories

- ISO Coordinator Kevin Stoneking spent months working with the Oklahoma City Fire Department to help them prepare for their ISO review. Because of their hard work and serious commitment to community safety, the department earned a Class 1/4 rating. It could save thousands of homeowners money on their property insurance.
- A homeowner in Meridian was upset because her insurance premium skyrocketed. She found out that her insurance company was charging her based on a Class 10 instead of a Class 8B rating. The insurance company never received proof that her home was part of this particular fire district. After the incident was cleared up, the homeowner was able to save about $4,500 a year on her insurance.
- ISO Coordinator Kevin Stoneking has made big strides in the firefighting community by working with the Oklahoma Rural Water Association. One issue has been access to water for rural firefighters. While there is rural water available, firefighters did not have access to it for many reasons. Kevin has reached out to get both sides to work together since access to water accounts for 40 percent of the score in an ISO review, and feedback has been positive. Kevin even wrote a column about the topic in an issue of the Oklahoma Firefighter newspaper.

ISO Field Coordinator Kevin Stoneking wrote an article in the Oklahoma Firefighter newspaper to address the issue of access to rural water.

This Year in ISO

- ✦ 190 Departments Received ISO Evaluation
- ✦ 55% of the Graded Communities Earned an Improved Rating
- ✦ 118 Departments Received ISO Consultations
- ✦ 6 Communities Water System Tested (Flow Testing)

Kevin Stoneking, ISO Field Coordinator, presented a citation of recognition to Oklahoma City mayor Mick Cornett for the Oklahoma City Fire Department's rating upgrade.

Yogi Cole, ISO Field Coordinator, met with the Madill Fire Department to present them with a citation of recognition for their hard work on improving their rating.

CASE FILE

Suspect: Prentice Ponds

Charges: Insurance Fraud & Robbery

Summary: A Tulsa man who filed a bogus insurance claim and assaulted an insurance adjuster has been sentenced to life in prison. Prentice E. Ponds II was on parole at the time of the crime. He has a long criminal history with multiple felony convictions.

Ponds was arrested in August 2015 after an investigation by the Oklahoma Insurance Department's Anti-Fraud Unit. Investigators found that Ponds filed a fraudulent insurance claim on a 2014 Chevy Camaro with preexisting damage he'd purchased off eBay. When an insurance adjuster went to Ponds' home to question him about the claim, Ponds became angry. He attacked the adjuster and took his file and audio recorder. The insurance adjuster was later treated for a head laceration and broken ribs.

A Tulsa County jury convicted Ponds of robbery and insurance fraud. He was sentenced to life for the robbery conviction and 25 years for the insurance fraud conviction. Ponds' prior felony convictions include assault and battery, robbery and burglary.

Chief Rick Wagon teaches seniors how to recognize fraud.

After disasters, Anti-Fraud investigators place yard signs in damaged neighborhoods so consumers know they can call OID with insurance questions.

2017 Legislative Accomplishments

Every legislative session, OID works with state lawmakers to craft bills that benefit consumers and businesses. For OID, 2017 was another successful year at the Capitol. Gov. Mary Fallin signed eight OID-requested bills into law. Four of those bills are highlighted below.

- ✦ House Bill 1720 requires property insurers to provide a premium discount or rate reduction to any homeowner who builds or retrofits their home to meet the Insurance Institute for Business and Home Safety (IBHS) FORTIFIED Home High Wind & Hail standards.
- ✦ House Bill 2234 enacts the complete National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Holding Company Model Act. These revisions to the model act, adopted by the NAIC in 2010, equip the Commissioner with additional tools to evaluate risks to an insurance company within the insurance holding company system.
- ✦ Senate Bill 115 transfers the Oklahoma Compulsory Insurance Verification System (OCIVS) from the Oklahoma Department of Public Safety to the Oklahoma Insurance Department in an effort to improve the system and reduce the number of uninsured drivers on Oklahoma roads.
- ✦ Senate Bill 372 sets out a regulatory framework that allows consumers to receive policy documents in electronic form. Consumers retain the option to continue to receive documents in paper form.

LICENSING AND EDUCATION DIVISION

The Licensing and Education Division has two distinct functions that protect Oklahomans: 1) regulate all individuals and businesses required to hold an insurance license, and 2) ensure that every licensee meets the requirements set forth in the Oklahoma Insurance Code. The division also regulates continuing education providers offering insurance courses in the state.

Did You Know?

Oklahoma is characterized as a voluntary state, meaning that a real estate appraiser credential is not required to perform an appraisal, unless that appraisal is involved in a federally-related transaction or a real estate related financial transaction of an agency, instrumentality, or federally recognized entity covered by FIRREA. As a practical matter, virtually all residential mortgage transactions are performed by credentialed appraisers as a lender requirement.
